Alice Bodega

October 14, 2005 - October 17, 2020

Alice was such a sweet little soul, who brought love, laughter and happiness into everyone's life that knew her over the last fifteen years. There was not one person who didn't smile when you mentioned Alice's name. How special she was. A little dog who loved to play with giant beachballs, three times her size, as if she was a star soccer player and her squeaky toys she took outside with her, even though we would often have to remind her to not forget her "babies" when calling her in from playing, as she ran to get them. She was big sister to Skye, our beautiful Weimaraner and to Sammy, our sweet cat, a.k.a her brother. Life will never be the same without her for any of us. Through all the tears we smile, and reminisce as we look at pictures of Alice over the years and remember how much she loved birthday parties, anyone's but, especially her own. How grateful we are to have had her in our lives and if our prayers were answered there was a giant beachball, three times her size, waiting for her in Heaven.

We love you, Alice.

“ Alice you were the cutest puppy. Do I dare say you kind of sounded and looked like a piggy. You may have been small, but you had the biggest presence. Your language was unique, and you had a lot to say. You had such a fashion sense with the hats, the pearl necklace, and that pink dress. You were such a hit in your costumes at Halloween. You had everyone’s attention at the cookout when you hilariously headbutt a ball that hit me right in my nose. I am attaching the phot of you when you jumped into our car, and obviously wanted to take a trip to Virginia. I didn’t know your little legs could propel you that high. Sammie your cat bro liked to share your dog bed, and he tried to snack on your food. Skye, your big doggy sister is madly attached to you, and never wanted you to be out of sight. I picture you content in your Daddy’s arms. I see your Mom taking the best care of you. She watched closely, and made sure your medication was on time. We know you are in doggy heaven, probably taking over. Sweet Alice, you were dearly loved and adored by your family and friends. You took a little piece of our hearts when you left.

“ What I remember about Alice Bodega. She is a trooper. Put up with so many hats, costumes, and pictures. She loved it all. Running around without a care in the world, playing and grabbing some attention. She had the best life, and knew how to soak it up. You will be loved over the rainbow bridge Alice Bodega...tell them who is boss, it is you!!

“ Whenever I visited Addie, Jay and Skye, Alice would inevitably want my attention by coming close and talking to me in her doggie talk and this would always make me smile and talk to her. She was a sweet dog. I was privileged to know her. Sympathies to her family even her brother.

“ Alice was one that would greet you every time we visited. My son would lay on the floor and she would love all over him. She gave unconditional love all the time. Alice will be greatly missed.

Sending love all the way to heaven to you!
