

Tiger Blair

May 15, 2008 - August 14, 2020

My sweet Tiger, Most people were intimidated when they first met you. Very shortly after you made it clear you only wanted kisses, belly rubs and treats from anyone who was offering. We were blessed with 12 years to love you, but it just wasn't long enough. I know your body needed to rest, but our hearts were just not ready to let you go. I imagine you are running around heaven with a ball or a giant stick hanging from your mouth, playing in the snow. We know how you loved the snow!

I know that when our time comes to meet again, you'll be waiting with your tail wagging and a big puppy grin! Until then baby boy, We'll keep you tucked away in our hearts! We love you Always!
