

Alonzo Tienprasid

October 18, 2012 - January 29, 2021

Alonzo was such a special cat! He was big and fluffy and had the most gorgeous green eyes. He ran out the back door every chance he got to roll around in the yard. We would lay together and snuggle and he would lick my face like he did. He loved me more than I've seen most cats love people and I just adored him. I will always miss him like crazy, but so thankful we had time together.

RIP my sweet fluffy boy!
