

Angel Moore

November 4, 2008 - December 4, 2020

My Angel was an angel. She got up in the morning and I would tell her to tell God thank you for another day! and she would get on her back and growl and put her paws up in the air. When I was sad she would come and put her head on me. I love her. She is going to be missed. She was my daughter.