

Archie Hollander

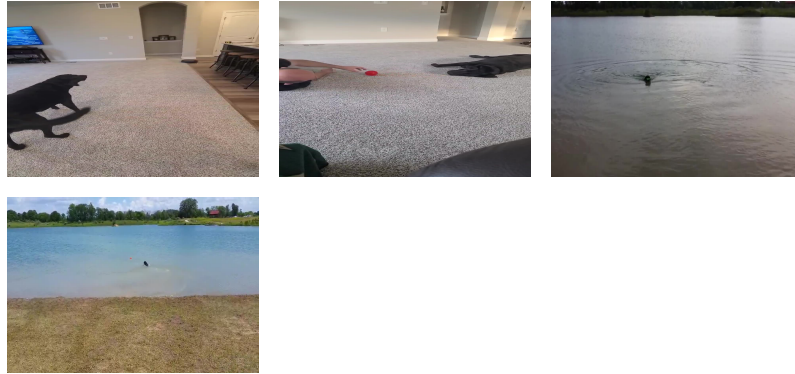

December 19, 2012 - July 19, 2025

Archie gave us 12 years and 7 months of pure and absolute happiness, joy, love, companionship and loyalty. He was such a gentle soul. Anybody that met him said he was such a gentleman. The type that's big enough to counter surf if he really wanted to, but would never steal. If there was a pond, creek or pool, he was in it. Archie loved his toys, especially tennis balls! He was the dog that would swim faster than others at the park pond and return with 3 tennis balls. Even though he wouldn't come all the way out of the water. He loved the tennis balls and water more than treats! Archie loved being outdoors and was a goofy guy. He ended up with the nickname dude. Only because we spent so much time as a puppy saying "dude, what are you doing?" And "dude! Come on man!" We miss you Archie and love you dearly. We miss how you'd 'bonk' us with your nose or pull the covers off daddy if you were ready for breakfast. Hope you're in a place with endless trails, swimming, food and tennis balls dude! Thank you for choosing us to be your mom mom and daddy. Love ya dude, you'll always be mom moms little man and daddy's dude

“ Oh archie boy. How we miss you. That deep bark that scared away more than one person. Your stand offs with the robot vacuum. Your lazy fetch/toss. Your absolute drive to swim and play. Maddie misses you too. Sir Archibald Clark, we miss you dude.
