Our 4 legged baby we adopted from an animal shelter when he was 6 years old, he was so lovable, my husband was a maintenance supervisor at a mall and a store in the mall was sponsoring an adoption day for the local animal shelter but Bam Bam decided he needed to walk the mall and find his own family, my husband found him walking the mall with no one attached to his leash LOL they fell in love with each other and we were lucky enough to adopt him. We loved him very much.
