

Bandit Humble

January 15, 2018

Bandit came to live with us via our daughter around Thanksgiving in 2006. He quickly became very special to us because of his personality. He was independent and yet loving in his own way. He never became a "lap dog," but he loved to sit with you where ever that may be. He loved rides, walks, and sleeping in our bed. I spoiled him rotten even though my wife Diana said I shouldn't. He will be missed by his friend Jinx and our entire family. T. Y. Diana & Dave Humble

“ I remember when Bandit first became a part of my Mom and Stepdad's Family. My mom was never really what you would call a "lover" of Dog's. I remember her saying that no Dog would ever be sleeping in her bed and low and behold the next thing that I know she is telling me that Bandit has officially made his way to the bed with them!! He had an awesome life and made friends with Jinx, my mom and stepdad's 3rd Dog! He will be missed! We love you Bandit and we'll see you again!!
