

Benjie Aultman

September 23, 2024

Our sweet Benjie lost his battle with Lymphoma in September. He was the very best boy and one of the funniest dogs we've ever known. We will miss his Husky tantrums and all of the belly rubs he always begged for. There's a Benjie sized hole in our hearts, but we are comforted by knowing he isn't in pain anymore. We love Benjie very much, and we miss him terribly.
