

BoyBoy Greaves

August 1, 2006 - May 30, 2018

BoyBoy, his sister & mama showed up at my house as kittens. All were feral. It took me a year but finally was able to get BoyBoy & his sister tame enough to bring inside. He was a silly boy. He loved to walk on our railing on our balcony. He also loved belly rubs. He had a routine every morning where I would gently beat his bootie & then pull his tail. He would wait patiently till I woke up to do this. I'm going to miss my sweet boy so much!!
