

Brownie Pyles

July 22, 2023

Goodbye, my little boy . . . mom misses you so much. I think about you every day. Part of me went with you the day God took you home. I miss holding you and cuddling with you every day. I remember the first time I saw you. I thought you were the cutests, tiniest baby and you were so scared. But, within a few days you knew you was home - you and your two brothers. Chico is still with me and Kilo was waiting for you in heaven. Goodbye my baby, mom loves you so much.
