March 15, 2006 - December 9, 2017

Brutus: Research at OSU Veterinary Medical Center

Brutus came to us when our so, Steve, moved to Florida. There was no way Brutus could manage Florida heat with his triple coat.

Brutus kept his grandpa and grandma company and was a great comfort to them as they battled cancers (kidney & breast).

Brutus was the "rock star" of the neighborhood and enjoyed the 2 legged and 4 legged neighbors' company on his walks. The one time of year Brutus enjoyed the most was when it snowed! He would turn his face to the biting wind then face plant into the snow before rolling in it. The last memory we have is the walk in the snow before Brutus took his "last car ride" to OSU where they helped him ease into the snow bank in the sky.
