

Brutus Driscoll

September 13, 2010 - February 10, 2025

Brutus came into our lives on the day he was born. I chose him out of a litter of 6 puppies. At that time, he was the smallest in the litter. In time, he grew to be the biggest one! We brought this little bundle of joy home when he was just 5 weeks old. He was so small I could hold him in my hand. Brutus was supposed to be my dog, but he bonded to his "Daddy" instead, sitting in his lap and napping or playing with his toys. He loved his daddy and would protect him fiercely. Brutus could be the sweetest baby ever when he was playing or resting and looking out for his pack. The moment he entered our home, I made a promise to be with him until he took his last breath. We kept that promise. I know he loves us and is still watching over us. Brutus gave us a sign on the way home from being put to rest. He gave us a peek at the rainbow 🌈 on our way home to let us know he made it to the Rainbow Bridge and was reconnecting with his friends. Brutus was preceded in death by his brother, Finn. He's survived by Roberta and Jeff Driscoll (his human parents), and Aunt Shari Hall. He also had 2 human brothers, Tim & Justin Dehnart. Brutus loved going for walks, playing in the grass and wrapping up in his blankets.
