

Buckeye Douthitt

April 27, 2020

Dearest Bucky,

In 2007, you entered our family at approximately one year old as a shelter rescue. With all the adoptable dogs available, Kelsey and I connected with you at first sight and were impressed with your enthusiastic and happy demeanor despite your circumstances. At home, you immediately found your place while displaying a perpetual smile, sensitivity, and unconditional love. You grew up with human brothers, Kelsey and Casey, feline sister, Gigi, and became my shadow. Kelsey taught you how to “high-five”, and no matter how many times you were asked to demonstrate this trick, you would oblige-- even while lying in bed trying to sleep.

You gave us the most remarkable 13 years, serving as best friend, faithful companion, fearless protector, and teacher of how to live life. You provided lessons on compassion, patience, forgiveness, remaining calm in calamity, having an attitude of gratitude, slowing down to take joy in the moment and simple things, and the art of aging gracefully. You made life easier and became a powerful source of comfort and devotion. Many thanks for conveying this wisdom to beloved canine cousin, Warrie. Your essence remains a part of all the lives that have been touched and you will be missed tremendously.

Words can never express the depth of my grief or the gratitude for the privilege of being your mom and sharing time with you. I am eternally blessed as we are joined at the heart forevermore. Godspeed and peace be with you, precious Bucky. Until we meet again, I will send you a daily kiss on the forehead and whisper in your ear "I love you more!". And for now, I will reach my hand toward the sky to meet your paw with each high five, buddy.

With cherished memories, sincerest respect and love,
Mom

My beautiful angel, Bucky...God bless his sweet and loving soul. 3/12/2006 –

“ Dear Buckeye,

For most of my life, I have been surrounded by the joy and positive energy that you brought to our family, and to say I miss it would be an understatement. Losing someone you grew up alongside is challenging, but even today I can still feel your presence amongst us and that will stay with me always.

I think of all the times when you would watch as I learned to play tennis, and how you would enjoy chasing down the balls I hit out. I think of all the times you would enthusiastically greet the family as we arrived home. I think of all the times you would go downstairs when we were home alone because you didn't want to hear my loud music. I think of the times I would draw you sitting and waiting by the window for someone to come home.

Above all else, when I think of you, there are several things that come to my mind without fail. Your smile was one that I will forever remember, so vibrant and radiant. You were always smiling, even as you aged and once easy things like climbing stairs became slower and harder.

The simple things will always remain with me. All the walks we took around the block and in the park, how your head was shaped like a bicycle seat, how your ears would flop up and down whenever you walked, all the times we went “zoom zoom” in the car, and all the times I would hear your little footsteps coming up the stairs, letting me know that my mother was about to visit.

Last but not least, I want to say thank you for enriching our lives and giving us more than we could have ever given you. So thank you again for all of the great times and the privilege of getting to know you. Now all I can ask for is that we gave you close to what you have given us.

Sincerely, Casey

"For since you have arrived, all we have wished was for you to walk in our shade, and that is eternal."

“ Dear Buckeye,

You were my companion throughout my formative years, and gave me the very best you had every day. You taught me what it means to be loyal and forgiving, as well as what it means to put others above yourself.

Though the scars from your passing are fresh, I know I can take comfort that someday we'll meet again. Life is much less without you, but I know you're still watching over us all and waiting to see us again. I will always keep you in my heart and honor your memory.

“ I my first meeting with Bucky. His rep with strange dogs concerned you. But farley and Bucky walked side by side to the back of yard and long friendship could never be broken. He will truly be missed. I am sure Bucky and farley are walking side by side in heaven.

“ Suzanne and Family - I am so sorry for the loss of your beautiful Bucky. I hope you find peace in knowing that you provided him with a loving home and gave him the best life any family pet could ask for. The loss of that unconditional love that only they can provide is a pain like no other. You were a great Mommy to him. Rest easy, Bucky.

“ Bucky visited our home every year since 2008. A great friend to our Beloved Farley and our newest member of the Family, Reggie. We always looked forward to his visits. He was well behaved and a lot of fun to have around. He was always generous with his kisses. I know he was a great source of comfort and love to my sister Suzanne and her sons Kelsey and Casey. We will miss his yearly visits. Rest in Peace Precious Bucky.
