

Buckeye Hladik

March 9, 2009 - October 27, 2024

We watched Buckeye come into this world when his mama, A neighborhood stray, decided to have her babies in our house. We couldn't resist keeping him and his brother Smokey. He stole our hearts even when he became our "grumpy old man" in his later years. We will miss and love him forever. May he be resting in the arms of his human daddy.
