

Candy Jackson

June 1, 2009 - April 20, 2025

Candy Loved laying out in the sunshine. She was very lovable and kind. Candy would sit and watch tv like she knew what was actually going on with the story lines. Candy never met a stranger. Her sister Tempest would spoil and love on her purchasing all sorts of treats and toys when she visit from St. Louis, Missouri. Car rides was a plus for her. Enjoying looking out the windows seeing everything. Candy loved to play with her cousin Adonte. Candy will be truly missed.

“ Candy girl! Oh, how you'll be missed by your friend, Jaxon! You would hide from him when he came to house because he would worry you 🐕! Such comfort in knowing that all dogs go to Heaven!
