

Casey Koetz

November 26, 2018

Casey was a wonderful, silly, loving dog. His nickname was Goofy Guy and that reflected his personality. He loved everyone and everything. He could entertain you when you were down and delight you with his antics.

He didn't have an easy life, diagnosed early with Addison's Disease, then IVDD, then a tumor that cost him part of his jaw before finally losing his battle with Hemangiosarcoma. But until the cancer, he just bounced back from everything and I felt he'd lick this too. I know he tried but it was just too much.

RIP my brave and silly soul. We love you. Please pass your "molecules" on to Simon.

“ Casey, even tho we never met we feel like we got to know you pretty well.
I will miss your Goofy Guy antics and that beautiful dark and handsome face.
Thank you for staying as long as you could with us. You were a Warrior! ❤️

“ I will always miss playing "toes" with Casey by the fence. He was a happy dog that loved life no matter what life threw at him. He loved everyone he met and was willing to give kisses whether you wanted them or not. Fastest tongue in the West! Rip little buddy

“ I never met Casey but I know his heart. He loved unconditionally and filled his family's hearts with joy. There was a kinship between him and my boy Clancy, both gone too soon. I loved this goofy guy.

“ Pat, Maggie & Tizz, My heart still ancestor all of you. You will never know the surprise I felt after reconnecting with you, Pat, to find the similarities between us as cousin's after all these years. As kids, we shared brother and sister poodles as pets, Peep and Cinder. Then years later, me with KC and you with Casey. KC's mother's name was Maggie, and you have a Maggie who was your Casey's partner in crime. We will always have a connection, as dog moms and cousins. We love you and your girlies and will always remember your goofy guy, Casey, with love and prayers as he awaits you over the rainbow bridge

Sorry for the typos, I meant aches not ancestor, Pepe not Peep, and furkids not girlies. I have no idea where my autocorrect gets its ideas from.

“ I loved watching Casey grow. He was born the same year as Sophia and it was a joy watching him via Facebook & hearing of all his antics. I will miss him & your stories of his escapades but I'll bet he'll shine a little of himself down to Simon to let you know he's got his eye on you & your pack ❤️🐶❤️
