Poor Casper, My Sweet Boy

Tribute Wall

VF

“Casper was the happiest, goofiest boy there was. He was a rescue from the shelter, a stray. When I first brought him home he was a menace! Just like me when I was young.

Full of energy and life! Smarter than any dog I've ever met! Casper loved to smile; he loved chicken, soft toys, treats, playing, and running. He'd often accompany me on rollerblade outings. He was by my side as we hammock in the park. He was by my side on late 3am McDonald's runs. No matter where I went, he was by my side.

Casper taught me so many things in life, patience, acceptance, forgiveness and unconditional love. He never faulted me when I got it wrong, always loved me and stayed patient as I grew and learned.

Casper was a teacher, a healer, a goof ball and a love bug! You could catch him out on the fields with mom or snuggled under a blanket on his bed.

You will be severely missed. I'm grieving you being gone. I thought I had more time with you. ❤️

I hope you're young again and frolicking through the fields with many friends. I hope there's more toys than you know what to do with and so many other pets for you to play with.

Thank you for what you gave me. I didn't rescue you Casper, you rescued me ☐☐.

I love you my sweet boy, Rest in Peace. ☐☐
