

Cesar Biller

August 23, 2010 - July 16, 2019

Cesar was my first dog. My family got him when I was young so we basically grew up together. He was a Bernese Mountain Dog, and the breed is known for being very loyal, and I have never met a creature, or person more loyal than he was. He was more than just my best friend, but a very close family member. Cesar was known for his loving and goofy personality. He didn't cross paths with anyone who didn't love and adore him, except for sometimes the mailman. He is forever in our hearts and memories, and sure to be waiting for us to meet again one day.
