

Chelsea Hahn

April 21, 2015 - November 25, 2022

From the day I met her, I knew she was going to be mine. We bonded from the beginning, and it only grew stronger. She was always by my side. So loyal and so loving. In Chelsea's short life, she was there to meet the love of my life, get married, move to a house, and be there for our daughter. Chelsea loved car rides and her momma, and that's how she drew her last breath. Mommy loves you so much, baby girl.

Tribute Wall

PA

“ I remember the day your mother asked me to go with her to see you. You were such a cute little puppy. So your mom took you home.
I will always remember all the times we sent together.
God bless you Chelsea.
-Papa

Papa - December 05, 2022 at 05:51 PM

LC

Oh, dear Chelsea, you had quite the journey in your life. You were always there for your mom's ups and downs and celebrations. Always constantly touching and getting as close as you could to her. She needed you and you needed her. It was the perfect match. I will always remember you as a warm, soft, cuddle bug who would surprise me by getting on the couch and laying your big soft body on me. So very curious and had fun barking at passersby with your cousins.
You lived to be with your mom. You were a good girl.
Love you always and thank you for making me laugh so many times.
My favorite lunkhead ever!
-Auntie Laura

Laura Case - December 05, 2022 at 06:27 PM