

Chevy Agosta

November 15, 2015 - May 18, 2024

Chevy was a spunky guy he spent his whole day following his mom, dad and brothers around and always wanted to be as close as possible to them. He has been there guardian sense coming home as a 8 week old puppy from the shelter. He loved to run around and attack his sister Daisy, His most favorite part of playtime was playing hide n seek with daddy. His brother William says he was the best bedtime partner ever and will miss his snuggles and him hogging the bed. Chevy has left his family to soon and they wasn't ready to say goodbye. But it's never goodbye it's I'll see you later. We miss you so much big and we love you so much more.
