

Chico The Man Washington

June 8, 2022

Our baby boy, Chico The Man Washington went to doggy heaven after a good life of 17 years. Chico entered our lives like a tornado making sure we knew it was his house. First day he jumped on our furniture and I was thinking he had to go. But the ladies that dropped him off were heading to the door and the kids were happy. So he stayed and we all fell in love. There will never be another Chico. Saying goodbye to Chico has been hard on us all. I know Chico is in doggy heaven controlling everyone. I thank God He allowed Chico to be with us. We love and miss you Chico. Your family the Washington's.

Tribute Wall

DW

“ First time Chico snuggled under the tree ”

Deborah Washington - July 13, 2022 at 10:12 PM