

Clumsy Saxour

September 6, 2019 - September 2, 2021

Clumsy's mom was a stray cat. I brought her home. Come to find out she was pregnant. She had 7 babies only 3 survived (Clumsy, Fluffy and Lighty). Clumsy's brother Fluffy went to heaven at 8 months old. So it left Clumsy & Lighty. Clumsy was a very shy, loveable, playful kitty. She loved to flip over all the time. She loved to be petted but not held for long. She loved to run through the house with her sister Lighty. She loved to hide in my cabinets or on the top of the cabinets to hide from her sister. I remember on night she got out our bedroom window and was on our roof. She was just sitting on the roof. Clumsy was a very beautiful gray kitty. She had beautiful spots on her belly. We always told her that and she always seems to understand what we were saying. And she got her name Clumsy cause ever since she was little she was always very clumsy, falling off stuff so that's how she got her name. She will be missed and loved always. She will forever hold a piece of our hearts. She was such a great kitty with a kind heart. We love and miss you Clumsy.
