If love could have saved you then you would still be here with us today. There was nothing we wanted more than to bring you home so you could still enjoy your battles with Puff N Stuff, mooch every snack you could, and count your 4 treats each night. You were taken from us much too soon. We will miss all your sassy little antics and our swims in the pool. You were the sweetest unexpected blessing to come into our life. We will cherish all of our memories and we look forward to seeing you again on the other side.

With all our Love,

Your Family
