

Coco Ramby

December 16, 2025

Coco was the sweetest cutest and bestest dog, she was so loved ♡ she was Sam's soul dog and as much as it broke all of our hearts we said goodbye to our sweet Coco bean December 16, 2025 She was 13 years old, and she touched more lives than she ever knew. Coco wasn't just a dog. She was family. She had a quiet way of being exactly where she needed to be — watching, leaning in, staying close. She loved deeply and loyally, and she gave that love freely to our family, our kids, and everyone who came into our lives while she was with us. For me, Coco was my constant. She was there through stress, long days, frustration, and the moments when I didn't say much but needed something solid beside me. She grounded me. She listened without judgment. She made the house feel right just by being in it. No matter what the day brought, she was there — steady, patient, and loyal. She watched our family grow. She was present for milestones, ordinary days, and moments that didn't seem important at the time but now mean everything because she was part of them. When her body could no longer keep up with her heart, we made the hardest decision out of love — to give her peace. She went knowing she was loved, safe, and never alone. Coco leaves behind an emptiness that can't be filled, but also a legacy that will always stay with us. I am better for having had her in my life, and I will carry her with me in all the quiet moments she used to fill. Rest easy, Coco. Thank you for choosing us, for loving us, and for being mine. 🐾 ♡ ♡ ♡ ♡ ♡
