“Cooper was the sweetest little grandpup and such a charmer. I loved when he came to visit and jumped all over everyone and everything. He had his own little water bowl and loved slurping it and dumping it all over the floor. He gave the best hugs and kisses. I loved watching him with Kylie. He didn't leave her out of his sight. They were precious together. When Cooper came to visit, all eyes were upon him. He was an entertainer. We all loved this little guy. Rest in heaven Cooper, I'm sure Nikki and Tracie was happy to see you and so was Buttons, Ginger and our little Spunky. What a beautiful life you had and what a wonderful new life you will have. Give Nikki and Tracie some of your slurpy kisses. We love you Cooper now and forever!!
