

Cream Butler

October 11, 2025

Cream was my first ever pet, a gift for me for my 10th birthday. At the time, I couldn't imagine having anyone else in the house besides myself, my mom, and my big brother. But Cream lit up my childhood and teenage years like a firework. I spent so many days with her, sneaking out of the house together, walking through the woods, running around the yard, lazing about the house. She was always so energetic and outgoing, loving to see new things and meet new people. She loved to eat and play, and she especially loved to run. Watching her grow old and slow was heart wrenching for me. She'd been there through my toughest days, keeping me grounded when it felt like the whole world was collapsing around me. I spent 13 wonderful years with her, and I will never forget her. I miss her more than words could ever describe. May she rest in peace.
