

Dawn Blankenship

October 28, 2017

Dawn is survived by her brother and sister Swiss & Mittens all rescues of the same litter. Out of the three she was my buddy that was always by my side. I host an internet based video game channel and my subscribers knew her by her nickname "Basement Cat." I find solace in the fact that so many strangers have sent my family and I condolence on the passing of our beloved cat Dawn. The Blankenship family thanks Schoedinger for the care of our cat Dawn.
