

Dazi Marie Estep

June 23, 2005 - July 15, 2020

I got Dazi when i was 12, she quickly became my best friend. She got me through a lot of hard times. Was such a cuddler but loved hogging the bed. She would sleep in the weirdest positions and snore extremely loud. She loved Ice cream, french fries, and cheeseburgers. She will forever be missed and always loved R.I.P Babygirl. 06/23/05 - 07/15/20
