

DeBo Gunnell

August 4, 2022

Hey my buddy DeBo Gunnell

This little guy came into my life June 19, 2009 just little over 8 weeks old he was so adorable but trust me don't let the adorable fool you DeBo had a high impact on his first day coming home. I thought he was in his bed sleeping because he was so quiet but when I went to go check not only was his little paws holding a shoe that was twice his size he was chewing on my $100 pair of shoes and from that point forward I knew he was not only my dog but my son.

Hide your shoes and socks here come DeBo.

Lord knows this is hard.

There will never be another DeBo and my family misses him so much.

I know he is in doggie heaven now chewing on someone's shoe or socks.

Love always DeBo's Mom.
