

Dee Dee McCrobie

September 3, 2007 - August 9, 2021

Our beloved dog Dee Dee crossed over the Rainbow Bridge and into Heaven on August 9, 2021 in our home surrounded by her two Daddies, Grandma & Grandpa, and Aunts Lori, Amanda, and Amy.

Dee Dee was the most amazing dog you could ask for. She loved treats (especially Beggin' Strips and Pupperonis), running around in the back yard, and long walks around the neighborhood with her Grandpa. She also enjoyed getting special snacks from her little sister Avery.

She was always so happy to see you when you'd come home. It didn't matter if you were at work all day, or if you only went to the store for a half hour. She would do circles and jump off all four paws like she hadn't seen you in forever. A sight that just warmed your heart every time!

When it was time to eat, Dee Dee would do a Happy Dance. When she knew food was coming, she would jump into the air and do circles.

Anyone who came in contact with her absolutely loved Dee Dee. It was hard not to love such a sweet face and affectionate little girl.

She showed us unconditional love since she entered our lives on September 3rd, 2007 right up to her final moments on this Earth. She was so loved and will be missed by so many. Especially by her Daddies Jeff & Duane and her little sister Avery.

Watch over us Dee Dee. Be our Guardian Angel and show us you're still here in spirit. We know you'll be meeting us all, jumping around in circles when we enter the gates of Heaven someday. Until we meet again, fly high our sweet angel. We love you.
