

Eve Moore

January 3, 2025

Eve Louise Moore, of Coshocton, Ohio, passed away unexpectedly at her home in Stoutsville, Ohio, on January 3rd, 2025, with her family by her side.

Eve was a talkative, sassy, and exceptionally soft and fluffy girl who brought happiness to all who knew her. She loved people, animal and bird watching, the outdoors, and of course, her treats. Often, she could be found sitting on her favorite blanket near the warmest spot in the house, in front of a window or under the Christmas tree. Eve had an uncanny ability to sense when someone needed love and affection, and she was always there to offer comfort.

Eve had her own unique personality quirks, including a strong dislike for car rides and a need for undisturbed "me" time, which she indulged in frequently.

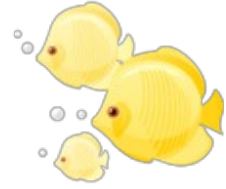

Eve is survived by her favorite human, Cat Dad, and best friend, JJ Moore, and his partner Erick Bellomy. Her loving family includes Grandma and Grandpa Kylee (Randy) Gardner, Aunts and Uncles Alan, Aurora, Alex, Bryce, Caeden, and Baby Girl Scarlett. Her furry siblings Theo, Bella, Enola, Snowball, Max, Binx, Pancake, Chloe, and Echo, along with many fur friends, that will also miss her dearly.

She is preceded in death by her beloved pet sibling, Zeus.
