

Gadget Frothingham

November 13, 2019

Tonight , November 13th, 2019, our #1 Fur baby, 13 y.o. Gadget went over the rainbow bridge.

Gadget was affectionate, gentle and lively spirited beloved friend that , at a young age, Gadget began climbing trees, 6 ft fences and wandering about to find new feline friends. Forced to stay indoors for his own protection he left us no choice but to enlarge our fur baby family. Gadget welcomed all 4 but also let them know he was the boss!

Gadget was so loved by all family members. Any visitor quickly grew to love him and adore his attention. He loved to snuggle in a warm house coat and insisted you move to let him cover up with.

In the mornings , gadget would jump on the dresser, and other furniture insisting it was time for his breakfast.

He's been the genuine ideal feline companion all these years. 🐾🥺😺

Tribute Wall

AL

“ Gadget was a cat with personality. The first cat I ever came to love. Will miss you, Gadg.

Auntie Lu - November 19, 2019 at 04:12 PM

ME

He is missed. He was my wake up buddy in the mornings and would sneak into my room at night to keep me company when my fur baby passed away. He would just about sit in my head when sitting in the couch and give me love like we knew each other for a life time. Enjoy chasing field nice over that rainbow bridge, friend. You are missed.

Melinda - November 21, 2019 at 07:30 AM