

Gesso Brinker McCloskey

January 26, 2022

The perfect combination of loving, wise and indifferent, Gesso was the cat of a lifetime. He was a wonderful companion. He comforted my mom during her journey with ALS. He played a great game of hide-and-seek and had a gentle, magical way of making the humans around him feel better. We're so grateful for the time we shared. We will remember and miss him always. "Furpants runnin'!"
