

Greyson Burns

March 23, 2014 - March 2, 2021

Today I had to put my boy down, my heart is totally shattered! He would have been 7yrs March 23rd. I knew his day was coming but I still was not prepared for the pain that we are feeling!! Greyson was a true superstar. He fought thru a housefire and lymphoma cancer, never once did he show weakness like his mom and ad is showing right now.
