

Gus Shirkey

December 16, 2009 - May 4, 2019

You came into my life just when I became an empty nester single Mom. You were 10 weeks old. You filled my heart with such joy and taught me about unconditional love. I am forever grateful for all the walks we took together; your obsession with real tennis balls; and your superior intelligence. You taught yourself how to open kitchen cabinets and even opened them at the Vet's office. You are forever in my heart Gus. I love you very much!

Love from your Dog Mom, Christine Shirkey

P.S. I miss all the laughs you gave me by stealing my spatula, putting the tennis ball in the dish washer every time I did the dishes, and your love for eating cucumbers!

Forever in my heart you will be. Best dog ever!!
