

GusGus Sorg

February 1, 2026

Gus was a Christmas gift from my daughter and her husband. He was a feeder that turned into a rescue. I fell in love with Gus as soon as I saw him. Gus didn't like car rides but he LOVED people and loved exploring whenever he got the chance. I could and did leave his enclosure door open even when I wasn't home and he'd still be right there waiting for me when I got home from work. I would snatch him up and give him squeezes and kisses then give him a treat every day when I got home. He was most definitely spoiled RATTEN! He loved pets and would lay there and stretch out so you could get all of his scratches and rubs in.. I started calling him my little potato. Gus would sit on my shoulder and play in my hair while I was on the computer. Gus loved playing "sheet" on the bed or the floor.. I would toss a blanket on the floor/couch/bed and he would burrow and make tunnels and pop out and squeak at us then dive back under the sheet. Gus liked going outside and playing in the grass and he liked his little swimming pool and tunnels. He would always give licks and snuggles and NEVER nipped at anyone ever! Gus was perfect! I still catch myself wanting to snatch him up and kiss his nose over and over. I loved him perpetually and miss him dearly every day.
