

Hansel Shaffer

February 24, 2020 - October 19, 2021

Hansel, I want you to know that momma loves you more than you will ever know. I miss you so much already. I talk to Gretel every night and tell her that you are okay now and that Queenie is taking care of you and that you are watching over us from the moon. Until we all meet again, shine bright for me and bring the stars. I love you - mom.
