

Harvi Campbell

November 25, 2014 - November 25, 2014

After 10 wonderful years, we said goodbye to our beloved Harvi. More than a pet, he was truly family—our comfort, our companion, and our joy through every season of life. Harvi was the best family dog we could've asked for: loyal, gentle, and so easy to love. He had a gift for knowing when we needed him most, and his bond with Jackson was something truly special. Our hearts are broken, but we find peace knowing he's now running free, tail wagging, and waiting for us in heaven. We'll miss you forever, sweet boy.

Tribute Wall

CL

“ I have a lot of memories of Harvi, but one of my favorite is Harvi never liked other dogs and one day he broke his chain and went after another dog. The owner of the dog got mad and called the police and the animal control officer. When the man came to the house and wanted to see Harvi, Dave took him outside and Harvi went and sat in front of the man and looked at him like he was so innocent. I guess you had to see the look on Harvi's face to appreciate the story.

CLCongrove - April 05, 2025 at 04:53 PM