

Haze A.K.A. Uno

October 17, 2019 - October 31, 2020

Uno was very energetic, too energetic. He was very special to us since since we have both of his parents (King & Luna). He was the 1st born male, and ever since I saw him with the little brown/honey colored dot right on top of his head I knew he was going to be ours. He loved to jump over the fence and scare people. He loved to run around and cause havoc. Uno will be forever in our hearts. It's not the same without him.
