

Henry Exline

November 11, 2012 - January 17, 2019

Henry found me while out walking my dog. He jumped over a fence and plopped down in my feet then followed me for a few blocks. He did this for about a month so I began watching for him. I took him in and he quickly made up with my 2 cats and he loved my dog. He was so friendly to every one and loved rough-housing with my newest dog. They often played together. He was a sweet boy and will be missed.
