

Hercules Manente

October 29, 2004 - March 9, 2019

Hercules was one of a kind ~ our sweet, but ornery, Brittany/Beagle mix. He never met a stranger and was so laid back and sweet in disposition. But, he was very opinionated and sassy as well. He let you know what was on his mind, especially towards the end of his life. He put up a brave front for us until the end. We all four gave him permission to go and be pain free. Our sassy furry will live forever in our memories and our hearts. We miss you "Big Guy" so much, but we know are here with all FOREVER!
