

Jack Wunderlich

July 25, 2023

I saw a quote recently that seemed perfect for my Jack: "When I needed a hand, you gave me a paw." I was sad and lonely when I found Jack. We bonded right away and he brought me so much love and happiness. He was such a sweet boy. And he was so full of personality, he won over everyone he met. He had to go through more than any one dog should have to, but he was a champ. And stayed happy through it all. Though I only got to have him in my life for just over 2 years, I will love him forever. He left his paw prints on my heart right next to ABe's. Thank you, Jack. I'll remember you and love you forever.
