

Jake Nelson

October 1, 2010 - December 25, 2020

Every time my husband would go outside he would say "Jake you want to go in the truck", and Jake be ready to go. But, when I would ride in the truck with them, Jake would look at me as if to say "Hey your sitting in my seat". He was more to us than our dog. He was our special boy and we miss him dearly.
