Jasmine Belle: Jazzy, was my little companion at everything except work. She was just a little dog with an enormous heart. When I went to work , she would give me a kiss and a hug and a kiss when I got home. She loved taking walks but only with me. She was my protector. No one was allowed to get near me and she always had to have the last word when I scolded her which was kind of funny. I let my other dog say good-bye to her before I brought her to Schoedinger Pet Services, but he still checks me every time I come home to see if I brought her home. It has been a little over a month but I still sometimes cry over my loss. Jazzy did not belong to any special clubs or anything just a very special place in my heart forever.
