

Jaxson Renee Castle

April 5, 2026

FINAL MISSION REPORT: Operation Cosmic Spud Jaxson Renee Castle, our Handsome Bo-Bansome, entered our lives like a flaming meteorite and has now officially returned to the stars. A solar-powered protector who lived as a permanent eclipse to his mother's shadow, he spent his days guarding his human brothers and recharging in every available sunbeam. Whether he was on a high-stakes car ride adventure or enjoying a tactical ration of McDonald's nuggets, he remained the heart of our home's security detail alongside his doggy siblings. Though his physical mission is complete, he leaves behind a sun-drenched legacy and a final post guarding the stars until our next ride together. FINAL STATUS: Mission accomplished, Action Jaxson.
