

Jeter Sitz

July 1, 2003 - September 28, 2023

Labor Day weekend in 2003, we found a tawny striped little kitten under a dumpster near a friend's house. He stole our hearts with his big ears, green eyes, feistiness, and purrs. "Let's call his Jeter", said 9-year old Connor, in honor of his favorite baseball player. Jeter loved who he loved and made it clear to those who didn't. He loved adventures, sleeping in neighbor's houses when their doors were left open , and climbing tall trees and needing rescued with a ladder. He loved to go for walks with his mom and didn't need a leash. He stayed right beside his mom, no matter the distance. Jeter was smart, loyal, and affectionate with a love for mozzarella and redi-whip. Our hearts are broken but know he is now at peace. We hope Fluffy and Grayson were there to meet you at the rainbow bridge and that there is warm fireplace for you to curl up next to.
