My daddy named me after a man in the Bible because I was always polite , patient, and well behaved. Except when I bit the furnace man.

My favorite pastime is the steal all my brothers toys and make him cry.

Everyday - all day

One day I got sick and my daddies stayed with me all day so I not be scared until the bright light come.

I miss my brother Jake, and sisters Ginger and Lilly. I miss my daddies the most. I miss you tucking me in bed and loving me.

I will continue to protect and love you.

You may not see me, but I am always with you.

Ps I am sorry for hogging the bed.

Love,

Joeb
