November 5, 2021 - July 3, 2025

Jojo boy, Son, you were so unique and so so so loved. We sat here laughing at all the good times we had. All the times grandpa brought you chicken nuggets and burgers. The time you got stuck in the little divot outback and you tried like hell to flip yourself back over to get out. You were the best brother to your dog siblings! Since I came home without you, the house hasn't been the same. Tori cat looks for you every time I open the door to let Alex and Aurora back in. You were one of a kind! We miss you so much buddy! I hope you're up there playing with Vanessa! Tell her we miss her too! Until we meet again! Watch over us stink
