

Karaoke Staten

March 6, 2023

On a cold, snowy December night, as I was loading my karaoke equipment after a show, a kitten appeared at the back door where I was loading. She was letting me know she needed a warm home, as if to be singing her song. She came home with us and my girlfriend named her Karaoke and she was a joy of our lives.