

Katie Gibson

October 4, 2017

I found Katie as a kitten under our house. We brought her in and raised her. We named her Katie (my son Steven picked her name as Katie.) My favorite memory of her would be around Christmas time. She loved laying under the tree. I enjoyed her coming home, she would meet me at the door. She was very much loved. She will be missed.